S. A. MINUTES

Oct. 6, 1964

The meeting was opened with a devotional.

All the council and Dr. Gilliam were present also the newly elected freshmen men's and women's representatives. Dave congratulated and welcomed Mike Lawyer and Joyce Porter as a part of the council.

Dave thanked the council and especially Eileen for the excellent foreign students' dinner. (A special report on the dinner is in Eileen's folder.) He then read a letter which the foreign students had written expressing their appreciation for our friendship and hospitality.

Dave ask the council to turn in their Who's Who nominations. The executive officers will meet and make the final list of nominations to be sent to Dean Pryor.

The I.D. pictures posted in the Student Center were taken down because students were tearing them off. They will be put up again, however, for the benefit of the clubs.

The following are the plans and decisions concerning Homecoming week end:

Chili supper--

Jim and Linda are in charge of planning.

The cafeteria will be closed.

Dwayne is in charge of transportation--buses and trucks.

Supper will be at the Wyldewood gym and the bonfire, pep rally, and devotional will be at Bee Rock.

Mike is in charge of a cleanup committee.

Car caravan--

Sophomore class is responsible for the organization.

Time: 1:30.

Each club can have an official car.

Program--

Dave showed the council a layout, cost: $40.00.

Formal dinner--

Eileen and Doris will be in charge of decorating the cafeteria.

Belles and Beaux program--7 :30 p.m.

Hootenanny--

Time: 9:30 in the gym (late permission)

Informal dress

The council has had time to consider whether we want to make another record similar to last year's "Highlights", so Dave asked for a written vote on whether the council wanted to record one this year. The vote:

Hollis - no	Ken - no	Eileen - no	Mike - no
Doris - no	Kathy - no	Darwin - no	Joyce - no
Jim - yes	Dwayne - no	Linda - no

The council voted 10-1 ~~not~~ to have a record this year.

Some students have asked why the Saturday night movies are at 7:30. They would like to begin them earlier. The council agreed to recommend that the time be changed to 7:00.

Doris asked the council to be alert to anything that should go in the S.A. scrapbook.

The meeting was adjourned.
